1. List of judgments is filed by NDMC.
2. It is argued by Ld. counsel for NDMC that granting personal hearing under Section 250 of NDMC Act Proceedings is not necessary in every case. He submits that as per the judgments relied upon by them the question of granting personal hearing needs to be decided in the facts and circumstances of each and every case.
3. The legal issue involved in the present case needs to be deliberated with the assistance of CLA / NDMC. NDMC is directed to file status report clarifying the following aspects:
 - (a) What is the criteria which has been laid down by NDMC to guide their officers, as to in which case and under which circumstances personal hearing needs to be granted.
 - (b) What are the safeguards which have been proposed in the said criteria to ensure that there is no misuse of individual discretion by the officers by doing pick and choose while granting personal hearing in the cases.

(c) Any other issue which the NDMC may like to highlight.

The CLA / NDMC is directed to remain present in person on the next date of hearing to assist the Tribunal in respect of deliberations regarding legal issue involved in this case.

Sh. Pritiesh Sabbarwal, Ld counsel for the respondent joined through VC.
Sh. Samman Vardhan Gautam, Ld. counsel for intervener joined through VC.

1. Part arguments on the point of appeal heard.
2. Ld. counsel for appellant has placed on record order dated 16.05.2025 passed in WP(C) 6621/2025 wherein the following directions have been passed:

“12. Having heard learned counsels for parties, this court notes that the issues in the contempt petition, which are pending before this Court, are independent of any proceedings, which are pending before the learned ATMCD.

13. This Court notes that the ATMCD is hearing the appeal in question as per its statutory authority, which is completely separate from any contempt proceedings that may be pending before this Court.

14. Accordingly, it is clarified that the ATMCD can continue with the hearing of the appeal in question before it, which shall be heard and decided independently, on its own merits.

15. Insofar as the contempt proceedings pending before this Court are concerned, the orders in the same shall be passed on the basis of the submissions made before this Court.

16. Needless to state, that this Court is not precluded from passing any appropriate orders in the contempt proceedings, if need so be, without being affected by any order that may be passed in the proceedings before the ATMCD.

17. Noting the aforesaid, the present petition, along with the pending application, is accordingly disposed of.”

3. Ld. counsel for appellant as well as MCD submits that in view of the aforesaid directions issued by the Hon'ble High Court, this Tribunal can proceed further to hear to adjudicate the present appeal.
4. In the present case MCD has filed the record of file no.49/UC/B-IISZ/2022 dated 24.01.2022. The said record also contains photocopy of orders passed in file no. 14/UC/B-IISZ/2021. In order appreciate the contentions it is essential to look into the original record of file no. 14/UC/B-IISZ/2021.
5. Ld. counsel for MCD submits that they will produce the record before the Tribunal on the next date of hearing.
6. Ld. counsel for appellant points out that in respect of file no. 14/UC/B-IISZ/2021, appeal no.122/22 was filed before this Tribunal which disposed on 05.04.2022. He submits that it is quite possible that the record of file no.14/UC/B-IISZ/2021 is annexed with that appeal. Registry is directed to produce said record on next date of hearing.

Sh. Nilesh Sawhney, Ld counsel for the respondent.

1. Arguments on application under Section 151 CPC moved by appellant seeking correction of typographical error are heard at length from Ld. counsels of both the parties.
2. It is submitted by Ld. counsel for appellant that in prayer clause the date of impugned order is mentioned incorrectly due to typographical error. He further submits that the name of first appellant be read as Hindu Mahasabha through Mr. Munna Kumar.
3. Ld. counsel for respondent / DNMC strongly opposes the application. He submits that through application the appellant is trying to filling the lacunas by misrepresentation. He submits that in the appeal, the appellant is claiming himself to be the owner of property in question and through this application appellant is seeking impleadment of Hindu Mahasabha represented through him. He submits that no authority letter is issued by Hindu Mahasabha in his favour is placed on record. He submits that no board resolution of Hindu Mahasabha authorizing Mr. Munna Kumar is filed on record. He submits that no amended appeal is filed along with the application.

4. Arguments heard and record perused. I found merits in the submissions made by Ld. counsel for NDMC. Hindu Mahasabha is a separate legal entity. No authority letter and board resolution is placed on record by the appellant. The letter dated 31.08.2021 filed along with application is not concerned with the present litigation. It is clear that the applicant / appellant failed to bring on record any authorization on behalf of Hindu Mahasabha to move present application. The application is allowed in respect of correction of typographical error and dismissed in respect of impleadment of Hindu Mahasabha as the applicant is not authorized to move application in this regard.

Arguments on the point of appeal heard from both the parties at length.
